The Tuesday Club held their January meeting at the library. Mrs. Arthur Wilson of Grafton spoke on new books. Reviews of the new books were given by the trustees.

Book week was observed in November. Mrs. Ira G. Dudley read to the children of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

Twenty-four books have been added this year for High School reading.

Twenty-seven non-fiction books from the Lending Library were loaned for three months by the Free Public Library Commission.

A collection of one hundred fifty-four art pictures were presented to the library by Mrs. Charles M. Field.

State Reading Certificates were given to five pupils at the graduation exercises.

Eleven books have been rebound and thirteen books have been replaced.

During the last four months of the year two hundred and sixteen books have been given to the school teachers for school reading and these books have been read five hundred and seventy-nine times by the children.

"Quiet" signs were made by four of the older girls in the Centre School and presented to the library.

The American Girl has been added to the list of magazines.

Respectfully submitted,

The library has been very fortunate this past year as it has received several gifts. From the will of the late Sarah A. Sawyer $11,437.39 was bequeathed to the library. Also pewter ware, china and old fashioned furniture. A gift from Mr. Ralph E. Hartshorn was a Seth Thomas electric chime clock. Six scrap books containing clippings and biographies of authors was a gift from Mrs. Ira G. Dudley. She also gave The Club Woman, The Etude and The Horticulture magazine.

The Tuesday club observed Literary Day at the library in January. Reviews on new books were given by the trustees and members of the club.

Twenty-two State Reading Certificates were presented by the librarian to pupils at the graduation exercises.

Fifty-nine books have been added this year for the State Reading.

Thirty-five children's books were loaned to the library for six months by the Bay Path traveling library.

Book week was observed in November. Mrs. Ira M. Popp read from the new books to the children in the first four grades.

Four hundred and forty-two books were given to the teachers during the year for school reading.

Twenty-four books have been rebound and seven books replaced.

The total number of books in circulation for the year 1933 was 11,058 which is a gain of 918 over 1932.

Respectfully submitted,

ETHEL M. G. SAWYER, Librarian.

Two gifts of money have been received this year.
$500.00 from the late Julia B. Carter of Leominster and $200.00 from the late Mary L. Hastings of West Boylston.

The week of October 21st was designated by Governor Joseph B. Ely as Free Public Library Week and in his proclamation he urged all citizens to visit their libraries during that period. Ninety-six visitors registered on the library days of that week.

Thirty State Reading Certificates were presented to pupils by the librarian.

Four hundred ninety-five books were taken out by the teachers for school reading.

Silence posters and a poster for library hours were e by boys of the seventh grade.

The School Arts Magazine has been added to the list of magazines.

Respectfully submitted,

ETHEL M. G. SAWYER, Librarian.

The Webster's New International Dictionary has been purchased this year.

Twenty-eight juvenile books were added this year to the State Reading list.

Thirty children received State Reading Certificates.

Five hundred fifty-three books were taken out by teachers for school reading.

Twenty-seven books were rebound and three books replaced.

Respectfully submitted,

ETHEL M. G. SAWYER, Librarian.
