Scribner & Co.	1

Mrs. Everett Bartlett presented to the Library, "Eddie Rickenbacker" by Hans Adamson, in memory of Lieutenant Thomas R. Bartlett.

The Library Trustees placed in the Library, "Old Vermont Houses," by Herbert Congdon, in memory of Mrs. George H. Sawyer.

"Old American Houses and How to Restore Them," by Henry Williams, was purchased with money from the "Howard Fund."

Mrs. Douglass Crossman presented to the Library, "Bayou Boy," by Eleanor Frances Lattimore, in memory of Lawrence Crossman.

Two copies of "Getting the Most Out of Life," were presented to the Library by the Reader's Digest Association. Scribner & Co., "I Chose Freedom," by Victor Kravchenko.

"Uncle Ray's Magazine" has been added to the list for the children.

In April the trustees accepted with regret the resignation of Miss Ethel M. G. Sawyer, who for nineteen years had served as Librarian, to become effective May 1st. Mrs. Hazel L. Sawyer was named as her successor. Mrs. Carl Johnson as assistant.

Twice during the year Miss Genevieve Boisclair and Miss Sarah Beard from the "Division of Public Libraries in Boston," were here discarding books which they considered of no more value to the Library.

Respectfully submitted,

HAZEL L. SAWYER,
Librarian.

Number of books last reported	8,932
Number of books added	380
Number of books discarded	61
Number of books now on shelves	9,251
Fines and sale of paper	$37.80

The circulation of books for the year 1945 was 7,045. Fiction, 5,906; Non-Fiction, 1,139. The circulation of magazines was 1,582.

The library was closed two weeks on account of no fuel and one and one-half days during the heavy snowstorm.

A gift of $5,000 was left to the library by Mrs. M. Annette Learned of Oxford, Mass.

The library has lost a valued trustee in the death of Mrs. George H. Sawyer, who had served on the board for twenty-five years. Three books have been put in the library in memory of Mrs. Sawyer. "Pennsylvania Dutch Stuff," by Earl F. Robaker and two volumes of "Pottery and Porcelain" by Warren Cox.

Mrs. Everett E. Bartlett presented to the library, "He's In the Air Corps Now," by Frederick Graham, in memory of Lieutenant Thomas R. Bartlett.

The Omnibook has been added to the list of magazines.

Respectfully submitted,

ETHEL M. G. SAWYER,

Librarian.
